Action Taken Report: (To be filled by the concerned faculty / course coordinator)

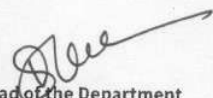

CO4: Students feel difficulty while writing validations in forms by using regular expressions. so we are planning to focus more on this concept by taking more no of classes and clarify their doubts

CO5: Questions are asked real time application oriented, so students are unable to answer those questions.

CO6: Redux concepts are advanced, so lack of proper online and offline resources we are unable to give the real time applications. Next time we will concentrate by arranging guest lectures on those applications.
